

THE END OF THE KALI YUGA

Lecture by Samael Aun Weor

The sidereal year exists as well as the terrestrial year. We understand the terrestrial year as being the movement of the earth around the sun during a period of 365 days. The terrestrial year has four seasons: spring, summer, autumn, and winter. The sidereal year also exists, lasting for approximately 25,968 terrestrial years.

Our solar system travels around the zodiacal belt and during its voyage many unusual things happen. The solar system returns to its original point of departure after completing its voyage around the zodiacal belt, thus concluding the sidereal year.

The sidereal year also has its four seasons: spring, summer, autumn, and winter. Spring is the Age of Gold, summer is the Age of Silver, autumn is the Age of Copper, and winter is the Age of Iron.

Each Root Race endures a complete voyage of the solar system around the zodiacal belt.

Our present Root Race, the Aryan Race that populates the five continents of the world, was born after the universal flood and will last throughout the era of Aquarius, which we are presently in. The voyage of our solar system began in Aquarius and will end in Aquarius.

Before this present voyage, our solar system completed another voyage. Another Root Race existed during that previous voyage, that is to say, during that previous sidereal year. I would like to emphatically refer to the Root Race that inhabited the lost continent of Atlantis.

The Atlanteans, who had bodies that were three meters in stature, created a very powerful civilization. The Atlantean continent was immense; it extended from the south to the north, from the austral region to the septentrional. This Atlantean Root Race had its four seasons, or ages.

During their spring or Golden Age, borders and passports were unnecessary. Frontiers did not exist, and everywhere there was love among humanity. Innocence reigned upon the face of the Earth. One who knew how to play the lyre could shake the universe with its melodies. At that time, the lyre had yet to be smashed into pieces by falling upon the floor of the temple. This was because the Solar Dynasties were still governing.

As the Age of Silver arrived, everything from the Golden Age diminished. However, human beings were still in communication with the ineffable beings who are known in Christianity as Angels, Archangels, Principates, Thrones, etc.

When the Age of Copper arrived, the radiant splendors of the Golden and Silver Ages became dark. The same splendors of the past did not exist. People started to establish frontiers, wars were begun, hatred was born, as well as selfishness, envy, greed, etc.

Finally the Age of Iron, the Black Age, arrived.

Obviously, the Age of Copper was the autumn, and the Age of Iron was the winter of the Atlantean Root Race.

During the Age of Iron, the Atlanteans developed a very powerful, materialistic science. They built atomic rockets in order to travel to the moon. In fact, these Atlantean ships were so powerful that they were able to travel to Mercury, Venus, Mars, and generally to all of the planets of our solar system.

Atlantean medical science went far beyond our modern medical science. The Atlanteans were experts in transplants. They transplanted not only visceras like hearts, kidneys, pancreas, etc., but furthermore, they could transplant brains.

The transplanting of brains was the breaking point of the science of transplants. As a result of this science, a person could remain alive for many centuries and through many bodies without interruption, simply by transplanting their brain from one organism to another.

The Atlantean science was indeed formidable. Presently, in the Himalayas, there are many hidden caverns containing certain mechanical apparatuses that are being preserved in order to telepathically transmit knowledge that can help human beings. From this we can see that the Atlanteans did not need to be bookworms in order to receive knowledge.

The lighting system used in Atlantean structures was atomic. Those hidden caverns of the Himalayas and others in Asia are lit with the atomic lamps of the Atlanteans. The Atlanteans utilized solar energy as well.

The Atlanteans were not just scientists, they were also magicians. Sadly, many of them developed their magical powers purely for the purpose of evil.

The Atlanteans were clairvoyant and it is obvious that through this sixth sense they could see not only the third dimension, but furthermore, they could see into the fourth dimension, the fifth, sixth, and even the seventh.

The Atlanteans knew very well that the elementals of fire, water, air, and earth were sentient beings of nature. They were just like human beings, yet unlike them because of their complete innocence. These elementals of nature, known as salamanders, sylphs, fairies and gnomes in children tales, were for them a tremendous reality.

Therefore, with this knowledge, they were able to create a mechanical robot and endow it with an immortal and intelligent elemental. Thus, this is how these robots were in fact converted into intelligent androids whose purpose was to serve their masters, simply by taking possession of those creatures which are invisible to the ordinary senses.

The most powerful rite of Atlantis was the rite of the God Neptune. This rite endured for many centuries. However, when the Atlanteans ignored the laws of the God Neptune, their society began to degenerate.

During the age of Kali Yuga, the Atlanteans possessed tremendous powers. I remember the story of Jezebel, “Queen of Woeful Destinies.” Jezebel was an extraordinary queen who made herself immortal.

When this queen found that her glands were becoming old or sick, she would then have her doctors immediately extract the atrophied glands and replace them with others.

Therefore, the Atlanteans easily handled the endocrine system, and they furthermore knew that these glands of internal secretion are related with the Tattvas, i.e., they are related with the subtle forces of nature. The Atlantean physicians understood the vibrations of the Tattvas; they knew how to use them. In this way, Jezebel of the Woeful Destinies lived for thousands of years.

Disgracefully, Jezebel established anthropophagi (cannibal-ism) in Atlantis. Young women and children were immolated to the potencies of darkness for their religious cults. However, after these people were sacrificed, they were brought into the laboratory in order to be extracted their heart and glands for the service of Jezebel. Afterwards, the multitudes threw themselves upon the corpse in order to devour the flesh.

The Atlanteans had degenerated a great deal, and had now started using their awesome powers for evil and anthropophagi. Their magical science became black, and with these changes came horrible devices.

The Atlanteans could now create a mental monster that could crystallize into existence through their willpower. This monster needed blood as food to stay alive.

The last days of Atlantis were both frightening and apocalyptic. Their beautiful cities were destroyed by their atomic wars, and finally the solar system had completed its voyage around the zodiacal belt. When this happened, there was a great disturbance in the axis of the earth. The oceans were completely displaced through the changing of their beds.

The cold points of the Earth that we refer to as the poles were converted into the equator, and the equator into the poles. Millions of people perished, and all of the powerful cities of Atlantis submerged within the ocean that now bears its name.

This reminds me of the story of a multitude who invaded a certain temple during a time of earthquakes, whilst everything was inundated with fire and water. The desperate people cried out unto Mu, the great priest of Ra-Mu, saying, "Mu, save us!"

Mu appeared before the multitude saying, "The truth was predicted many times, and now it is too late. You will perish with your women, your slaves, and your children, and if the future race follows your example, they shall perish as well." Tradition states that the last words of Mu were suffocated by smoke and flames.

Three great earthquakes sank the Atlantean continent within the boisterous waves of the ocean that bears its name. When that incredible catastrophe finally concluded, the new Root Race began.

Obviously, there was a group of people that escaped from within the multitudes before this catastrophic event took place. It has been traditionally stated that a great master named Vaivasvata, the biblical Noah, undoubtedly called the people together in order to tell them what was going to happen. But, of course, the people did not believe him. They mocked him and laughed in his face.

The evening before the great catastrophe, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage. Never did they suspect that the very next day they would be beneath the sea in an oceanic grave.

The Holy Beings who direct the destiny of humanity warned the Master Vaivasvata Manu of the coming destruction. This was in order that he might be able to save his brothers and sisters before the Atlantean continent submerged within the ocean. The great Manu knew what to do in order to escape in time. They escaped during the night.

However, during these times, the Lords with the Tenebrous Countenance, who were owners of the very powerful androids which we spoke of earlier, were also owners of supersonic planes for the purpose of space travel. Therefore, the leaders of the select people, lead by the Master Vaivasvata Manu, took possession of some of these planes during the night and destroyed the rest.

Thus, when the perverse dwellers of that land awoke from their dreams the next day, they noticed with extreme astonishment that the waters of the ocean were invading their land. So, they ran to their spaceships, but they could not find them anywhere. Many of them suddenly understood what was happening and went in search of the followers of the Manu.

Only a few of the followers were left to be killed by the crazed multitudes who, momentarily, would be killed themselves by the crushing waves of the ocean.

At present, if properly explored, we can find marvelous cities, magnificent palaces on the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean. In aforesaid time, these existed with many people walking within their splendid halls. Now, only sharks and fish swim within the dark ruins.

Our solar system started another voyage around the zodiacal belt after the submergence of Atlantis. This catastrophic event finished off the fourth Root Race. Those few who were saved emigrated to the high plateau which is situated in the central table land of Asia, presently known to us as the small country Tibet.

It was there in Tibet that the survivors were mixed with the Hyperboreans and with the Nordics in order to originate the new Root Race, the present Aryan Root Race.

Our present Aryan Root Race was born after the deluge. Obviously, each Root Race has seven subraces. The first subrace was formed on the central plateau of Asia; in those times it was known as Hasha.

The second subrace flourished in India and China.

The emigrations carried humanity to the lands of Persia, Chaldea, Egypt, Jerusalem, where the third subrace of the great Aryan Root Race flourished.

The fourth subrace was formed by the Greeks and the Romans.

The fifth was formed by the Germans, English, French (Anglo-Saxon and Teutons).

The sixth was formed in Latin America. We know very well that many survivors of Atlantis came to Mexico: the Nahuas, the Zapotecs, the Toltecs, etc., all the original ancestors of America, as well as the Mayans who were living in Yucatan, Honduras and in Central America. However, the Aztecs, also known as the Nahuas, advanced throughout the land of Central America because they were warriors, finally arriving into the land of Panama.

Also in South America, the Incas and their powerful civilization existed. There is no doubt that the most powerful pre-Hispanic civilizations were the Mayans, Incas, and Nahuas.

I do not want to say that the Chibchas, Araucans, etc., did not have beautiful cultures; the strongest civilizations, however, were the Nahuas of ancient Mexico, the Mayans of Yucatan and Central America, and the Incas in Peru who lived in the mountains of Cusco.

When the Spaniards arrived in the Mexican land after they invaded all the land of Central and South America, they then mixed themselves with the autochthonous races. Out of this mixture the Latin Americans were born. They are the ones who form the sixth subrace of this Aryan Root Race.

The seventh subrace is in the process of being formed in the United States of North America; this subrace exists right now. It is the result of the mixture of all of the races of the world.

We have stated that a Root Race lasts as long as the voyage of the sun lasts in its travel around the zodiacal belt.

Our Aryan Root Race was born under the constellation of Aquarius, during the Era of the Water Carrier, immediately after the universal flood.

Now the end of this Aryan Root Race is at hand because the voyage of our solar system has finished. It has returned after many years to its original point of departure due to the fact that in this precise moment we are in the Era of Aquarius again.

This Era of Aquarius started again on the fourth of February of 1962 between two and three in the afternoon. At that moment, all the astronomers of the world could see with their telescopes the heavenly transit rush under the constellation of the Water Carrier.

What we are asserting is perfectly documented. We are not affirming anything that does not have proper documentation.

If someone states that the Age of Aquarius has not yet began, or affirms that it started sometime earlier than the date already mentioned, what does it matter to science or to us? The plain reality is that the Age of Aquarius started on the date already mentioned and that this phenomena was seen in all of the countries of the world by all of the scientists, astronomers, astrologers, etc.

This scientific cosmic event is a concrete, official, and irrefutable fact. On that date, there was a solar and a lunar eclipse that some of you might remember. Therefore, cosmically speaking, only a few degrees are needed in order for the solar system, which is presently in Aquarius, to arrive exactly at the original point of its initial departure.

The poles of the Earth are shifting during the voyage of the solar system around the zodiacal belt. If right now, guided exclusively by the magnetic needle of a compass, we were to take a plane to the North Pole and if we descend vertically to land, we will see that the pole is no longer there; in other words, the geographic pole does not coincide with the magnetic pole. The poles of the Earth are being shifted.

Eventually, the poles will convert themselves into the equator, and the equator into the poles. This will occur when our solar system concludes its defined voyage around the zodiacal belt.

Therefore, when the solar system arrives to the exact degree of original departure, the continents of the planet Earth will submerge themselves into the bottom of the ocean.

An unusual event is going to accelerate this process of swift change to the axis of the planet Earth. I am referring to the planet Hercolubus. This planet is six times bigger than the planet Jupiter. The planet Hercolubus belongs to the distant solar system of Tylo. The solar system of Tylo is rapidly approaching our solar system, and Hercolubus is rapidly approaching Earth.

Modern astronomers have before their sight the planet Hercolubus, or, as it is known by modern science, the Barnard star.

This planet is a powerful giant that will pass through our solar system at an angle. When this happens, the revolution of the axis of the planet Earth will accelerate violently. Then the final catastrophe will occur.

Some scientists believe that they will be able to push this monstrous planet away with nuclear explosions, but this will be useless. It will be impossible to push this tremendous mass of a planet out of the way with mere nuclear bombs.

This same planet brought Atlantis to an end. Before Atlantis existed, it annihilated the existence of another continent. We know very well that the continent of Mu or Lemuria sank within the waters of the boisterous Pacific Ocean after 10,000 years of earthquakes and incessant volcanic eruptions.

When Hercolubus passed at an angle through our solar system during the end of the Kali Yuga of the Atlantean continent, then the universal flood occurred causing displacement of all the seabeds. It was the end of Atlantis.

Easter Island, off the coast of Chile, and Australia are remnants of the Lemurian continent. The Caribbean Islands are remnants of Atlantis.

When Hercolubus once again passes through an angle of our solar system, you can be absolutely sure that another great catastrophe will occur. This indicates that the destruction that is approaching is not the first, nor will it be the last.

If we very carefully study the Solar Stone, or the Aztec Calendar, we will find extraordinary wisdom there. In relation to this calendar, the Nahuas (Aztec Masters) say that the Children of the First Sun were devoured by tigers. The Children of the Second Sun were cleared away by strong hurricanes and converted themselves into apes or monkeys. The Children of the Third Sun perished by fire and great earthquakes and they transformed into birds. They say that the Children of the Fourth Sun were swallowed by the waters and they converted themselves into fish.

They do not say anything about how the Children of the Fifth Sun perished, because we are the Children of the Fifth Sun. Yet, when they speak of the future, they indicate how we will most certainly perish.

These wise men who wrote of the destinies of the races of the past in this calendar also prophesied about the future. They say that the Children of the Fifth Sun will perish by fire and earthquakes. They also affirmed that in the Epoch of the Fifth Sun, the Gods will be dead. The meaning of this prophecy, “the Gods will be dead” is that the worship of the Solar Gods will be abandoned. This prophecy has already been fulfilled.

The Nahuas (Aztecs Masters) made an emphasis when they said in their Aztec Calendar that in the epoch of the Sixth Sun the Gods will resurrect. They also said that in the epoch of the Seventh Sun everything will be divine.

Let us talk about the Children of the First Sun. These people of the First Sun (the first Root Race) were people who lived on a primordial land, more than 300 million years ago, on the protoplasmic continent. The Nahuas stated that they were “devoured by tigers”; in other words, that they were children who were devoured by wisdom.

The Children of the First Sun were the Protoplasmic Root Race. This referral to protoplasmic people seems to clash with Hegel’s theory that refers to that bit of salt named protoplasm. These protoplasmic people had gelatinous bodies; they were ductile, elastic, very flexible. They could assume a gigantic stature or reduce their bodies down to a mathematical point. They were also androgynous, and reproduced themselves as the cells of our organism do; that is to say by cellular division.

Today, this phenomena of reproduction remains in our blood; thus, this is how one cell is reproduced into two, and the two into four, etc. This is called mitosis (reproduction of the cells).

The Protoplasmic Root Race was devoured by tigers; in other words, they were devoured by wisdom.

When the Nahuas mentioned the Children of the Second Sun, they said that they were “cleared away by strong hurricanes”; this is an esoteric statement. They now refer to the Hyperboreans.

The Hyperborean Root Race had androgynous bodies as well, but much less gelatinous and more gaseous. The Nahuas stated that they were “transformed into apes”; in other words, that some of them came to degenerate themselves and therefore they perished.

It is also stated in this calendar from the culture of our ancestors of America, the Nahuas, about the Children of the Third Sun, the Lemurian Root Race.

The Lemurians were gigantic hermaphrodites. We can see their representation in those sculptures which are in Tula, Mexico. The Lemurians were oviparous.

The Children of the Second Sun reproduced themselves by budding, but the Children of the Third Sun reproduced them-selves in an oviparous way. It is clear that the hermaphroditic body of Lemurians ovulated, and that the ovum that escaped from their ovaries was already fecundated.

The Lemurians were male-female (hermaphrodites), as the Bible states:

In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him; Male and Female created he them, and blessed them and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created. -Genesis 5:1-2

Therefore, it is stated that within a determined period the egg within the womb of the hermaphroditic Lemurian body was open and a child was born from it. This child was then nourished from the breasts of the father-mother.

When we state that the Lemurians were hermaphrodites, it invites us to explore the modern physical body. Certainly, the nipples on the male body are nothing but atrophied mammary glands, and the clitoris on the female body is an atrophied masculine phallus that has withdrawn with nervous ligaments. So in the human organism we have the evidence that in the past, the human body was hermaphroditic.

Still in these times we find people with both sexual organs. Therefore, this is proof or testimony for the persons who deny this fact, so that they cannot obstinately deny or ignore these truths which are unknown to so many people.

The Lemurians were divided into opposite sexes over the years through the process of evolution. Then, children were born with one sexual organ more developed than the other. Finally the day arrived in which the children appeared unisexual (with one sexual organ).

Therefore, when the sexes were divided, sexual cooperation was needed in order to create. During the epoch of Lemuria, the sexual act was still considered to be very sacred. The sexual act was only performed as a sacrament within the great temples of mysteries. This was a different age in which humanity had not degenerated.

The Nahuas stated that the Lemurians converted themselves into birds. I can tell you as a testimony of this that in Bolivia, South America, people discovered a small race of what we would call Lilliputians.

These Lilliputians were only 10 or 20 centimeters in stature, tiny men and women who inhabited a small town. This town resembled a toy town. These tiny beings disappeared one night by placing themselves into the fourth dimension and transporting themselves to another, safer place. They had to escape, as they were afraid of becoming a public “freak” show.

Many people were trying to get into the place in order to see these tiny beings before their escape, but now only the tiny town remains very well guarded by the natives of that area. Thus, this is how we understand that it is very true that the Children of the Third Sun were converted into birds.

The Nahuas stated that the Children of the Fourth Sun would perish by the waters, and that they would transform themselves into fish. Thus, this is true of public knowledge, according to history, that Atlantis was devoured by the ocean.

As for us, the Children of the Fifth Sun, they said that we will perish by fire and earthquakes. Obviously, the earthquakes are intensifying from instant to instant, from moment to moment.

Why so many earthquakes in this epoch? What is happening? The fact of the matter is that the ocean floor is cracking more and more all of the time.

A series of faults exist at the bottom of the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. Many of those faults are so deep that the ocean water is already in contact with the magma (liquid fire) of the interior of the Earth, thus causing steam and creating immense pressure within the fault lines so as to increase the movement of the continents. This is the secret cause of so many earthquakes that are currently destroying so many cities of the world and filling people of all nations with tears, pain, and mourning.

Therefore, that theory which states that the earthquakes are due to the simple shift of the continents or some geological layers does not convince anyone.

The crude reality of this matter is that soon the trembling in one country will be the trembling in another. The earthquakes are going to become more frequent and intense over time.

We can add to all of this calamity the tremendous nuclear explosions that the scientists are performing within the interior of this planet Earth. It is a very clear fact that a great catastrophe will occur, and should not surprise us when it does.

It is really sad that this planet is submitting itself to a long agony. The fish of the ocean are dying because we have contaminated the waters. There is no doubt that the oceans have become huge garbage cans.

The nuclear waste could cause, at any moment, a catastrophic event, since the containers that are used to house the nuclear waste are, in reality, completely useless. Therefore, at any moment, I repeat, this nuclear waste could provoke a frightful disgrace for our world.

The chemical fertilizers which many people have been using are, in reality, sterilizing the soil. The forests are being cut, finished, destroyed.

The cities are full of pollution. There are many scientists which will affirm that, in the direction we are headed, within forty years humanity will perish from the smog alone.

We can see then how this current humanity has degenerated itself, the oceans, rivers, lakes, the atmosphere. Everything has been contaminated.

The organic life that exists on the flesh of the Earth: trees, animals, people, etc., are necessary for the life of the planet Earth. The trees attract particular types and subtypes of cosmic energy that they transform and project to the interior layers of the Earth. The most insignificant insect attracts specific modalities of energy that it transforms and projects in the same format previously described.

Each one of us attracts particular types and subtypes of energy that are transformed and soon retransmitted into the interior layers of the Earth. The organic life of all animal, plant, mineral, and human kingdoms are necessary to sustain the life of the planet. Therefore, without the organic life of all creatures of nature, the Earth would convert itself into a great desert.

Everything is being disgracefully altered. Hunters are finishing off so many species of animals. Thus, this is why large game reservations have been set up in Africa. This is done so that they will not finish off all the creatures of nature.

The fruits of the Earth are being adulterated by the “know-it-all” scoundrels. Thus, this is why it is very difficult to find pure, unaltered apples today.

Any tree that has not been grafted or adulterated attracts, as a logical fact, the energy that is related to it. This energy is then transformed and retransmitted into the interior layers of the Earth.

Nonetheless, the trees that have been grafted can no longer accomplish their precious mission. They no longer charge their fruits with the vital principles that are inherent in all natural functioning organisms. In this day and age, we see in all parts of the world very beautiful fruits that are a pleasure to the eye, but disgracefully these fruits do not produce in the organism the same effects of the fruits whose trees have not been altered by grafts, or crossbred, etc.

Because of our present actions, the Earth is being submitted to a tremendous agony, and this must come to an end.

Nostradamus, the great astrologist who lived in the Middle Ages, asserted that in the year 1999 Herculubus will pass close to the Earth, and he clarified this in his prophecies when he said, “Then we will see like two suns.” He emphasized that the consequence of this will be the end of the present Aryan Root Race. It is obvious that this Root Race must come to an end.

In our past there have been two world wars: the war of 1914 to 1918, and the war of 1939 to 1945; but a Third World War is coming that will be more devastating than the first or the second.

As far as human beings are concerned, they are full of hatred. Therefore, as long as people carry within their interior the factors that produce wars, there will always be wars.

The words of Daniel the prophet come to my memory at the very moment of writing this:

The four winds of the heavens strove upon the great sea.

And four beasts came up from the sea and they were diverse one from the other.

The first beast was like a lion, and had eagles’s wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man’s heart was given to it.

And behold another beast, a second like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise , devour much flesh.

After this I beheld, and lo another like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given unto it.

After this I saw in the night visions, and the fourth beast, dreadful and terrible and strong exceedingly, and It had great iron teeth and everything that the beast devoured broke into pieces and it stamped the residue of the pieces with its feet. It was diverse from all of the other beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns.

...And shall devour the whole Earth, and shall wear it down and break it into pieces. And he shall wear out the saints of the most high, but when judgment takes its seat, the judge will take away his dominion and the kingdom will be delivered unto the kingdom of the saints.

The kingdom will be delivered unto the saints with the arrival of the new Golden Age. Obviously, the four beasts that Daniel saw in his vision are a reference to our four ages: the Age of Gold, the Age of Silver, the Age of Copper, and the Age of Iron, which is our present age.

In the Iron Age, humanity always arrives in the state in which it is presently. Thus, this is how this fourth beast (Iron Age) has been as dreadful and terrible as Daniel said, diverse from all of the other beasts (other ages), but his end will come from night to morning. As it is written, the day of the Lord will come when it is not expected. He will come “as a thief in the night.”

Therefore, in these precise moments, we are in the beginning of the end. The Apocalypse tells us of the beginning of the end, and we are precisely in the end of our era, that is to say, the end of Kali Yuga, the end of this fourth beast (humanity).

You will see within a very short time how the cities of the world will fall. Everything will be reduced to ashes, the earthquakes will intensify frightfully, they will be each time more and more powerful.

Therefore, you will be witnesses within a very short time, in your bodies of bones and flesh, of the events which will occur between the years of 1982 and 1992. You will remember by yourselves and then you will remember what we have written here. Alas, it is necessary for us to pay attention to these times, for the end is at hand.

With solar mechanics we can demonstrate that the solar system is arriving at the end of a great voyage. Truthfully, I say unto you that every voyage of the solar system around the zodiacal belt has always finished in a great catastrophe for our planet.

As for this humanity, the scripture states, “For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.” Therefore, “Babylon the great (this present humanity), the mother of harlots and abominations of the earth” will be destroyed, and from this perverse civilization of vipers, none will remain, not even one stone upon the other.

The Apostle Peter, when prophesying, said, “The heavens shall pass away with a great noise and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the Earth also and the works therein shall be burned up.” Certainly, the fire will be the first element to enter into action with the approaching of Hercolubus.

The magnetism of this planet Hercolubus is so great that the magma (liquid fire) from within the interior of the Earth will start to surface. Then many volcanoes will start to emerge everywhere, and a great bonfire will be propagated from the north to the south poles.

Nevertheless, before these events come to pass, the Antichrist will perform true marvels. The Antichrist, or the false science, will perform miracles. He will make atomic rockets that will be able to travel to any planet of our solar system. Frightening weapons will be invented, and all the people will kneel to the ground worshipping the great beast and saying, “There is nothing like this official science, there is no one likened unto the beast, there is no one like the Antichrist.”

Few will be those who will hear the words of Christ. Within a short period of time, people will not listen to this doctrine. People say in these times, “I want demonstrations, I have to see it in order to believe it, I only believe in what my physical senses inform me. Those mystical matters from the roof above no longer concern me. There is no one like the beast,” they say.

Therefore, all of you who read this message in these very moments, let it be known that the times of the end have arrived.

Nevertheless, if, as in the case of Atlantis, there were a select few that knew to leave with Vaivasvata Manu towards the central plain of Asia, then there must as well in these times be a select group that will survive the impending doom. These people will be taken away from the fire and the smoke before the great catastrophe.

Who are the ones that will be chosen to survive? These will be people who have chosen to explore themselves internally, those who eliminate their psychological defects, those who are finished with the cult of their EGO, the cult of their MYSELF, or ITSELF.

These chosen people will be formed by women and men of good will who in reality are able to transform themselves radically. These select people will be taken to a specific place in the Pacific Ocean. These chosen few will live during the end in a place for two centuries, where they will be able to see the struggle between the fire and the water in a battle to the death.

Therefore, when a double rainbow appears upon the clouds (a sign of a new alliance of God with human beings), these chosen people will abide in the new lands and new heavens, then the Golden Age will dawn.

This is why Virgil, the poet from Mantua said, “The Golden Age has arrived, and a new progeny commands.”
